Dear Dr. Molloy,

Thank you so much for an amazing presentation on April 14th 2011. It was an engaging presentation which allowed us as participants to recognize our own talents and consider the talents of all of our children. Through song, movement and discussion, we interacted with other parents in our community like never before.

Feedback from participants since the event has been very positive and all enjoyed the format and the information presented.

Thanks you again for delivering such information in modes that addressed all participants.

Sincerely,

Rosanna Bottero
